Meeting Highlights

resident Mary Clark began this week's meeting with a moving story about the satisfaction one gets by being kind to others—definitely a characteristic shared by Rotarians!

Our program for the day was by Ron Wildermuth, from the Santa Ana Zoo. He gave a fun and informative presentation about the 35 varieties of wild cats found throughout the world. Many of these wild cats can be seen at the Santa Ana Zoo... so be sure to take your family there for some quality time together.

Happy/Sad Bucks

eddi Boston kicked off this week's Happy/Sad Bucks sharing a letter from Chris Jarvi. Chris is really excited about a new collaboration between the National Parks Service and the Forest Service. Together they will host a course by the National Association of Interpretive Studies later this year, which Teddi will be taking. Mike Neben followed up with Happy Bucks for next Thursday's Gene Autry Humanitarian Awards, which will honor 61 high school athletes from throughout the county. Jack Jackson concluded our session with Happy Bucks for the upcoming 2004 concert series just released by the North Orange County Community Concert Association, which should be great! Contact Jack for more information.
