Meeting Highlights

Talk about a feel-good meeting! When Anaheim Police Chief John Welter arrived with Lt. Joe Vargas and our scheduled speaker, Officer Amador Nunez, we knew something important was going to be discussed: Namely, the very successful Jr. Cadet Program. Founded in March of this year, the officers are providing a positive role model for these kids, some of which are at-risk of joining the gang element. Already, 150 kids are actively—enthusiastically—involved, with 40 on the waiting list. But it didn't end there: when John Karczynski drew the Ace of Spades (for a whopping $278), he didn't hesitate to donate his winnings to the Jr. Cadet Program.

Their smiles say it all! L-R: Chief Welter, Lt. Vargas, Officer Nunez, John Karczynski, and President Vic.

Announcements, Events, Etc.

Club Historian – LB has graciously agreed to be our Club Historian and is requesting any interesting information/tidbits/facts we can pull from our memory banks. For example, our Golf Classics, Polio Plus projects, Halloween parade (yep, we really had one!), Pancake Breakfast, etc.

Free Lunch – Norm Buben passed out more “Free Lunch” cards to members, encouraging them to invite guests who would like to join Anaheim Rotary. (How else are they going to know how great we are unless we invite them!?)

Braille Institute Dessert – In lieu of our infamous Christmas Lunch of years past, we will be serving dessert at the Institute on Thursday, December 9, at 5:00 pm. Location: 527 N. Dale Ave. (just south of Crescent) in Anaheim. And a BIG THANK YOU to Jim Tripp for donating cappuccino and popcorn machines for this event!

Thank you, John, for your truly Rotarian kindness!

Happy. . . Very Happy Bucks!

Celebrating their upcoming events, Susan Klaren and Harris Done were more than happy to part with a few bucks. (Harris was even dressed for the game!) After all, what could be better news than an upcoming, flawless wedding, and a perfect–overdue–football championship!

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST . . .
Word has it that Santa will be paying us a short visit next week. Could he be coming to find out who's been n _____ or nice?
