Meeting Highlights

A few historic events were announced at this past week's meeting: LB is stepping aside as our official Club Historian; but not to worry, Mac McDougall has generously picked up the reins and we're sure will do a fine job.

The Centennial Clock project is moving along quite well. Check out the article on page 2.

We had three nominations for Business Rotarian of the Year: Paul O'Connell, Norm Buben, and Larry Tarpley . . . all three of which are great businessmen and outstanding Rotarians. After a very difficult decision, Paul O'Connell was selected as the winner.

Bruce Solari then introduced our speaker, Colleen Smagala, the Director from the Anaheim Interfaith Shelter (Halcyon). Housed in a nine-unit complex, this transitional living shelter (with its own child care center) is the only one in Anaheim. Families are allowed to live there for 9-12 months while getting their lives back in order and ready to move to their own housing.

A "Timely" Piece of History-in-the-Making:

Anaheim Rotary Centennial Clock

As you've heard, our club is planning to install a Centennial Clock just outside the Anaheim Convention Center. The Board of Directors would like your input as to the wording to be used on this clock:

This clock was donated by the Rotary Club of Anaheim and dedicated February 23, 2004 in honor of the first official meeting of Rotary on February 23, 1905, in Chicago.

The Rotary Club of Anaheim was chartered on May 1, 1921, and has provided over 80 years of service locally and globally.

Assistance from the Anaheim Hills Rotary Club, the Sunrise Rotary Club and the City of Anaheim is gratefully acknowledged.

For meeting information call (714) 765-8950

(Dedication ceremony to be held the afternoon of February 23, 2005.)

Still on their honeymoon?

Smiles above, and smiles below . . . this party ROCKED! And the food was great!

Above, Bob & Marjorie Doty with our newest member, Phil Krum and his lovely wife Frani.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it BUILD GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
