Meeting Highlights

As you can see already, there's not a lot of room for text in this issue as it's one big photo-op. But how wonderful that we have so much going on . . . and an on-site photographer there to capture the moments. (Thank you, Norm!)

President Vic read a wonderful letter from the Anaheim Community Foundation & Community Service Dept. thanking us for our $1,000 donation. A Rotary Club in Argentina emailed us an open invitation to visit and play golf . . . and since Dick Butler wasn't at this week's meeting—and it's always fun to pick on him—a motion was made to send Dick; however, we're not sure if it's a round-trip ticket!

Lane Calvert reported on the District Governor's dinner at the O'Connell's home, which went very well. Attending were representatives from Australia, Iceland, Argentina (Dick Butler's golf buddy?), Zimbabwe, and New Zealand.

Teddy Boston announced this year's Paint Your Heart Out project was in need of a Capt. and Co-Capt.; without hesitating, Jose Velasco and Mac McDougall stepped up to the plate. Thank you, guys!

And thank you, Trent Adams, for the great Craft Talk!

"Dear friends and distinguished guests . . ."

A beautiful, framed certificate (above) from the City of Anaheim recognizing our efforts; and the handsome brass plaque (at right), which will be read by thousands (no, millions) of visitors from near and far who visit the Anaheim Resort area.

A sincere thank you Mike Baker and Evan Goldschlag for your steadfast efforts in making our Centennial Clock a reality!

Food for Thought . . .

If a dog was the teacher you would learn stuff like:

- When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.
- Never pass up the opportunity to go for a joyride.
- Allow the experience of fresh air and the wind in your face to be pure ecstasy.
- When it's in your best interest, practice obedience.
- Let others know when they've invaded your territory.
- Take naps.
- Stretch before rising.
- Run, romp and play daily.
- Thrive on attention and let people touch you.
- Avoid biting when a simple growl will do.
- On warm days, stop to lie on your back on the grass.
- On hot days, drink lots of water and lie under a shady tree.
- When you're happy, dance around and wag your entire body.
- No matter how often you're scolded, don't buy into the guilt thing and pout – run right back and make friends.
- Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.
- Eat with gusto and enthusiasm. Stop when you have had enough.
- Be loyal. Never pretend to be something you're not.
- If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.
- When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by and nuzzle them gently.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it BUILD GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
