Meeting Highlights

With Evan Goldschlag looking right spiffy in his "presidential attire," he did a great job in leading us troops through his first official meeting. He began by distributing several thank you letters from our grant recipients; namely, the Anaheim YMCA, Trails

4 All, Boys & Girls Clubs of Anaheim, and Halcyon Anaheim Interfaith Shelter.

Following John Kaiser's Happy $5 Bucks regarding Disney's 50th celebration, Mac McDougall coerced nine members to donate $5 for a Disney-matching total of $50.

There were smiles all around this past week . . . or at least from those in real estate (note Steve's and Sandra's big grins). And smile they should for how well their industry has supported them these past couple of years. Steve gave a great Craft Talk on not only his personal life, but his career with Paul Kott Real Estate since 1986. He went from working for a steam ship company to "steaming" his way through real estate. Needless to say, even with "everyone and his brother" selling real estate, Steve is one successful producer.

And finally, what better way to complete the meeting than to have our other realtor, Sandra Cowans, win the Ace of Spades drawing!

According to our resident "Mouseketeer," John Kaiser, Disneyland is still The Happiest Place on Earth.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it BUILD GOODWILL
and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL
to all concerned?
