Meeting Highlights

You know what happens when the prez and prez-elect are out of town? According to Mike Baker, the "blue states" take control!

And a fine job Mike did leading our members through a great meeting. Tim Meade, VP of Communications for the Angels, was our guest speaker (or were we the guests in his "house"!). The meeting lasted longer than usual, but no one was complaining . . . or leaving! He's been with the Angels organization since 1980, so he's learned a thing or two – or three or four! – on how professional baseball works . . . especially the Angels!

Since he's been with them for so long, he could easily compare the historical (losing) side with today's winning edge, and how so well respected they now are throughout professional baseball. Why? To name a few: 1) Mike Scioscia, 2) they have the only winning record against the Yankees, 3) they've been in the post season 3 out of the last 4 years, and 4) for the last three years, the Angels and Dodgers together have had over 3 million in attendance.

What's on the agenda for next year? An improved offense.

Please bring an unwrapped toy to next week's meeting. Trent Adams will then deliver them to a church in Newport Beach that will be taking a truckload of toys to New Orleans next week.

Happy
Thanksgiving to you and yours!

Here's your chance to nominate a fellow member that you feel deserves to be our Rotary Business Person of the Year.

Please complete the form below and give it to either Sara French or Evan Goldschlag at next week's meeting. The Board of Directors will select a winner at their meeting on December 1st.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it BUILD GOODWILL
and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL
to all concerned?
