I originally sent links to you all from the Evite.com website, but the site showed the sender's name as Pinnacle Law Group and not me. So there was probably some confusion.

The links to the E-vites can be found in the chart above and in the boxes below. The first link is for the Long Beach Meeting on January 10th. The second link is for the San Francisco Bay Area Meeting on January 9th.

To date, only about 25% of all members of my mailing list have responded, yes no or maybe. Take a look and let me know if you are going to attend or not. Forward this to everyone you know that is affected by SLX's loans.

And, if you get an update email from "Pinnacle Law Group" and/or "Evite.com", it is from ME updating the meeting information. Go ahead and open the email. It won't say "EBlast".

The Class Action attorneys have created a Frequently Asked Questions webpage. You can access the page through either of their websites at:

http://www.jameshoyer.com/class_settlement.html

To receive the password, send a request to settlementquestions@gmail.com.
